

CHAPTER 01: EMANCIPATION

PAULO TAVARES

Excerpts from interview with Alberto Acosta, politician and writer, former president of the Monstecristi Constitution Assembly of Ecuador. Archive images of the landmark indigenous uprising of 1990 in Ecuador (CONAIE). Acosta narrates the political-historical foundations behind the introduction of the Rights of Nature in the constitutional law of Ecuador in 2008. Non-human rights as part of the history of human emancipation, a new universalism.

Cluster: Non-human Rights
